

Montessori
Architecture
A Design Instrument

Background and Updates

Apolloscholen

Montessori College Oost

Stichting Casaschool

International Montessori School

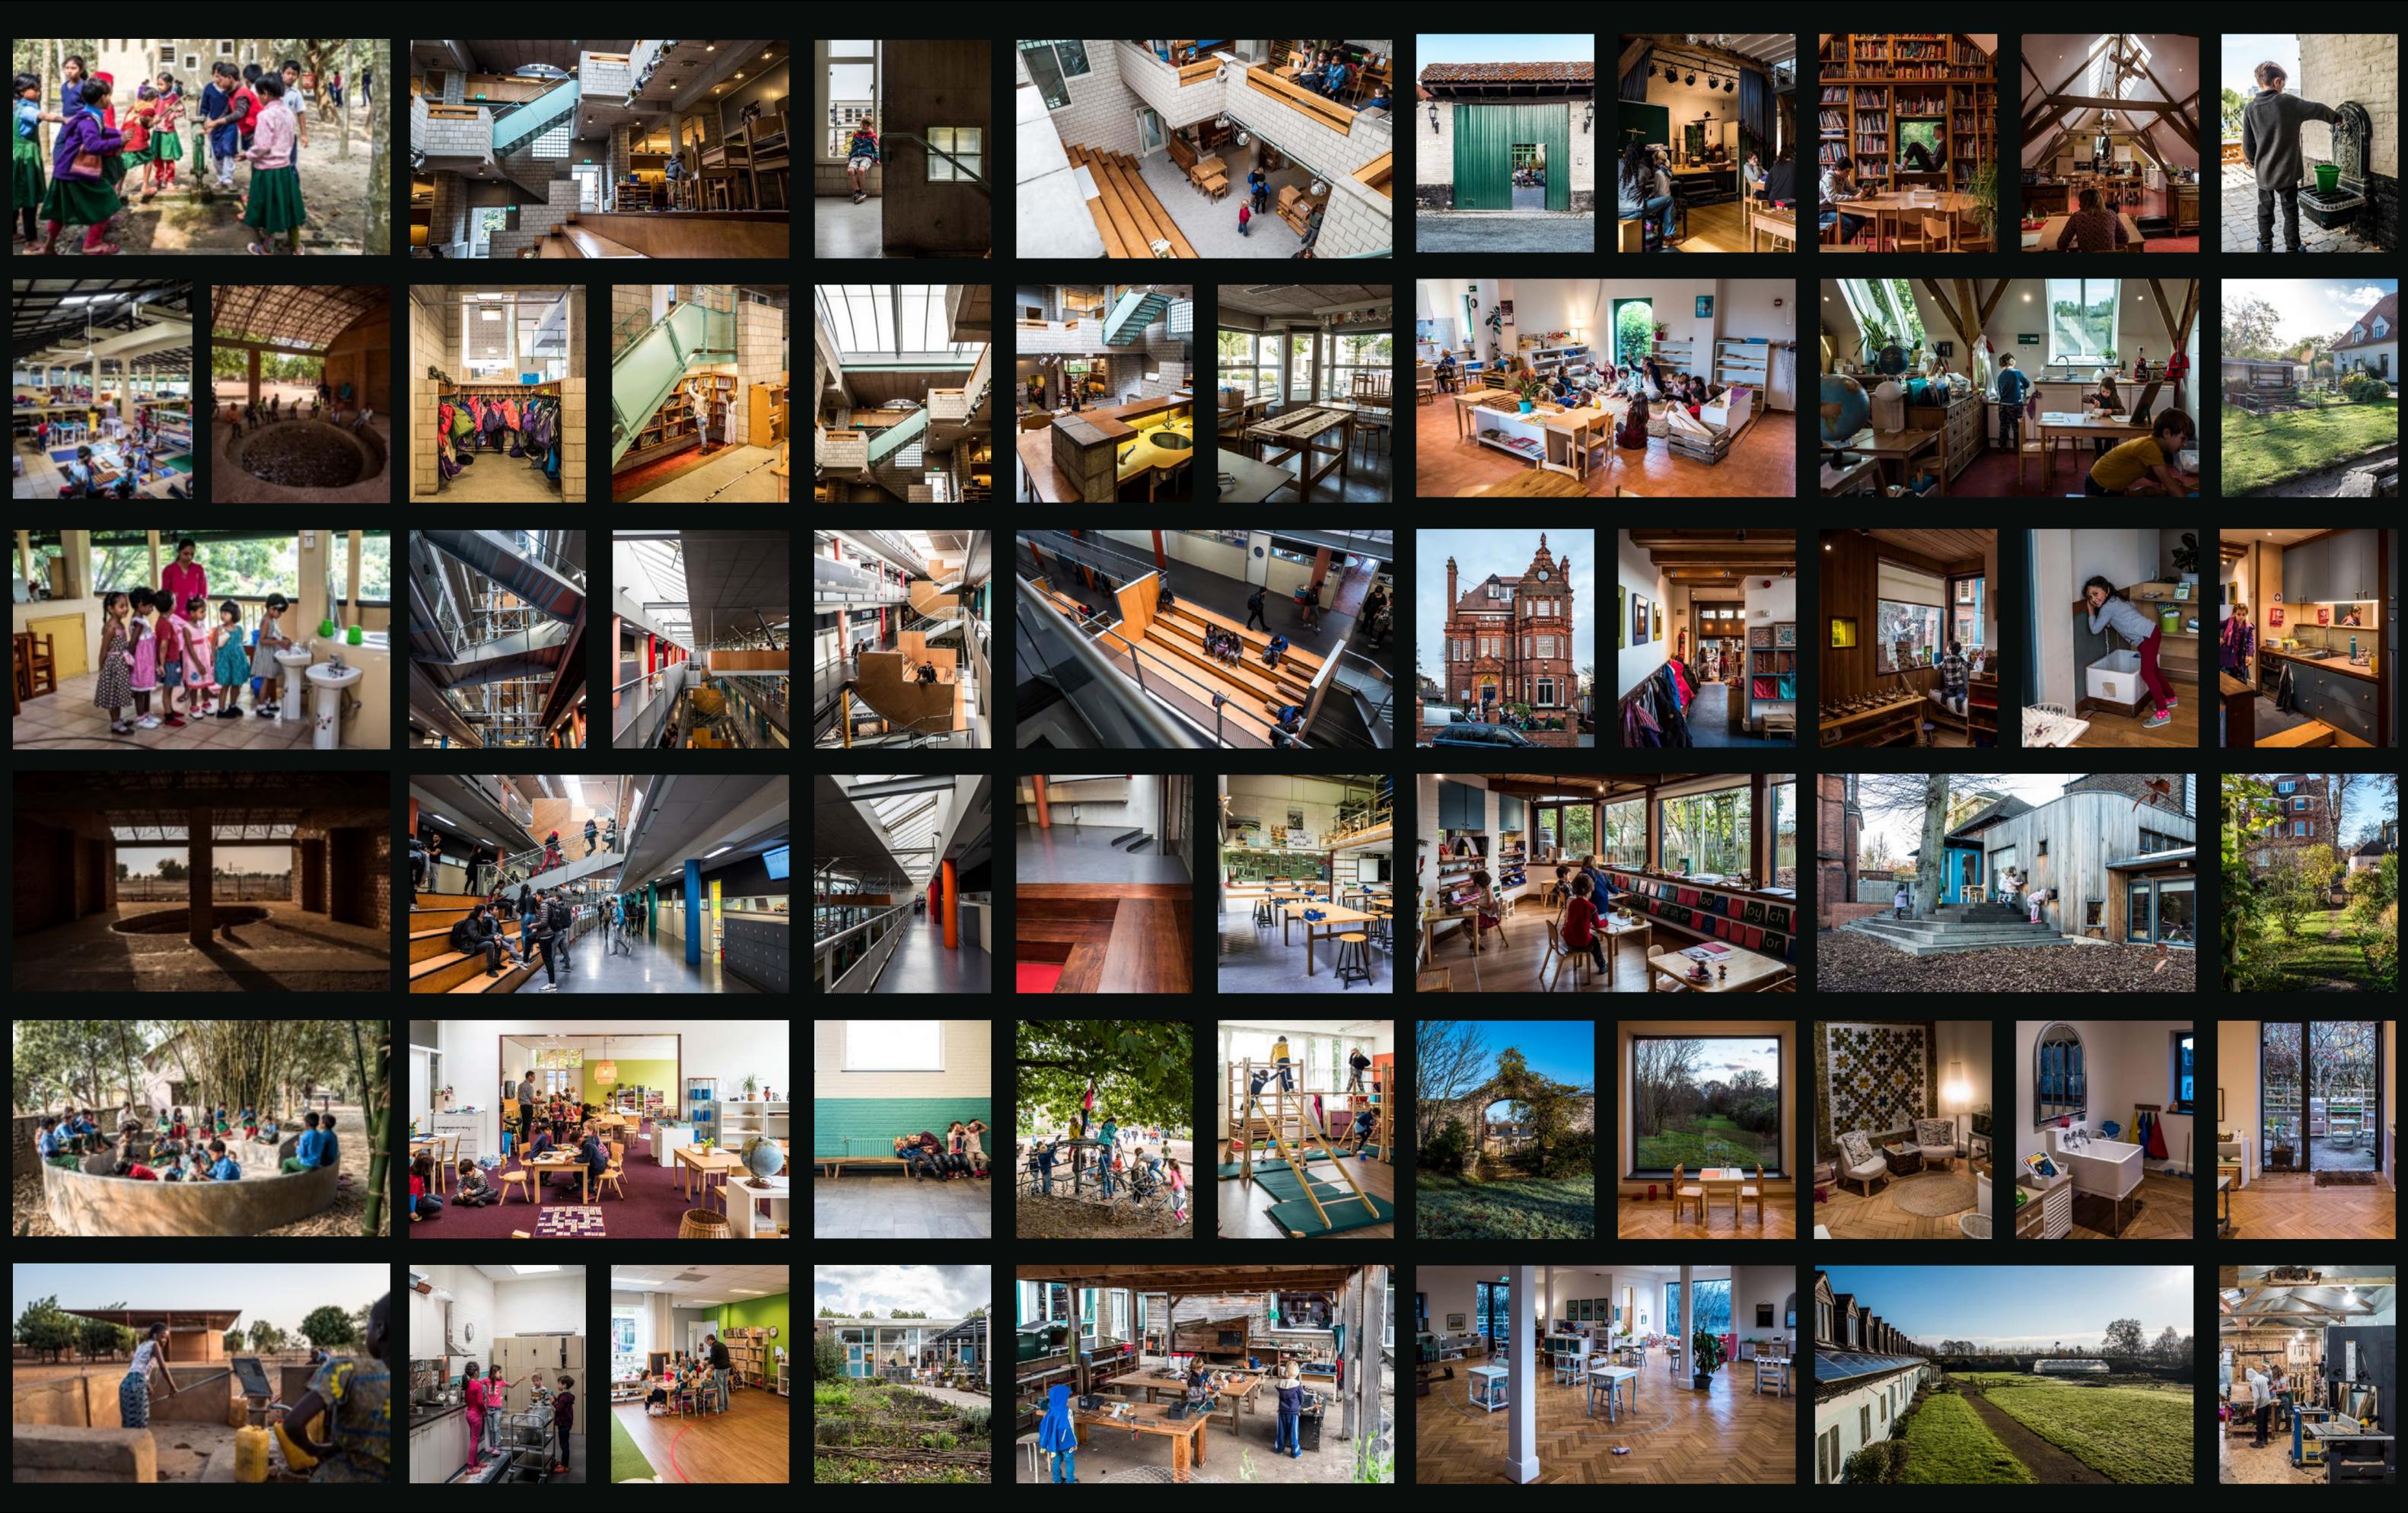

The Maria Montessori School

The Montessori Place

Primary School Gando

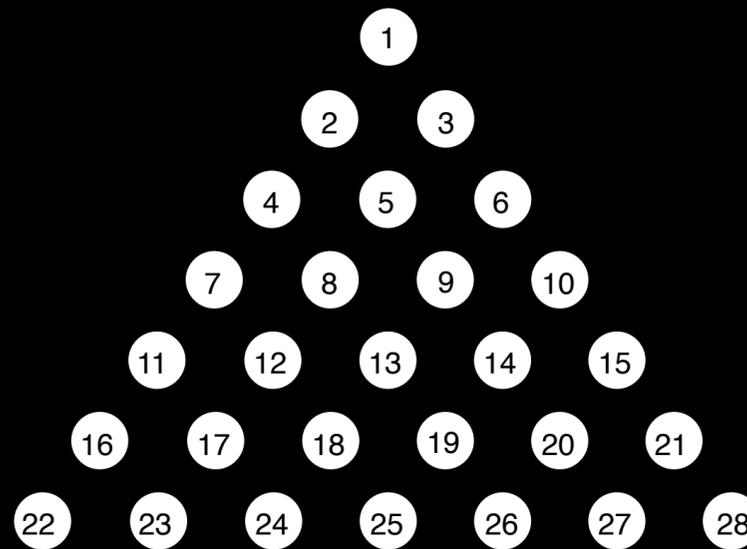

METI School Rudrapur

St. Bridget's Montessori School

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

- 1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
- 2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
- 3. Use of indigenous materials
- 4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
- 5. Connecting function of the greeting space
- 6. Avoidance of doors
- 7. Articulation of places
- 8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
- 9. Accessibility for children of different ages
- 10. Right quality of the acoustics
- 11. Proportion of walls to include storage
- 12. Organisation of open storage space
- 13. Observation without intrusion
- 14. Offer of seclusion
- 15. Placement of window seats
- 16. Importance of daylight
- 17. Activity based lighting
- 18. Meaningful access to water
- 19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
- 20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
- 21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
- 22. Creation of an everyday theatre
- 23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
- 24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
- 25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
- 26. West-side location of the children's garden
- 27. Workshop and making materials
- 28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
- 2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
- 3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

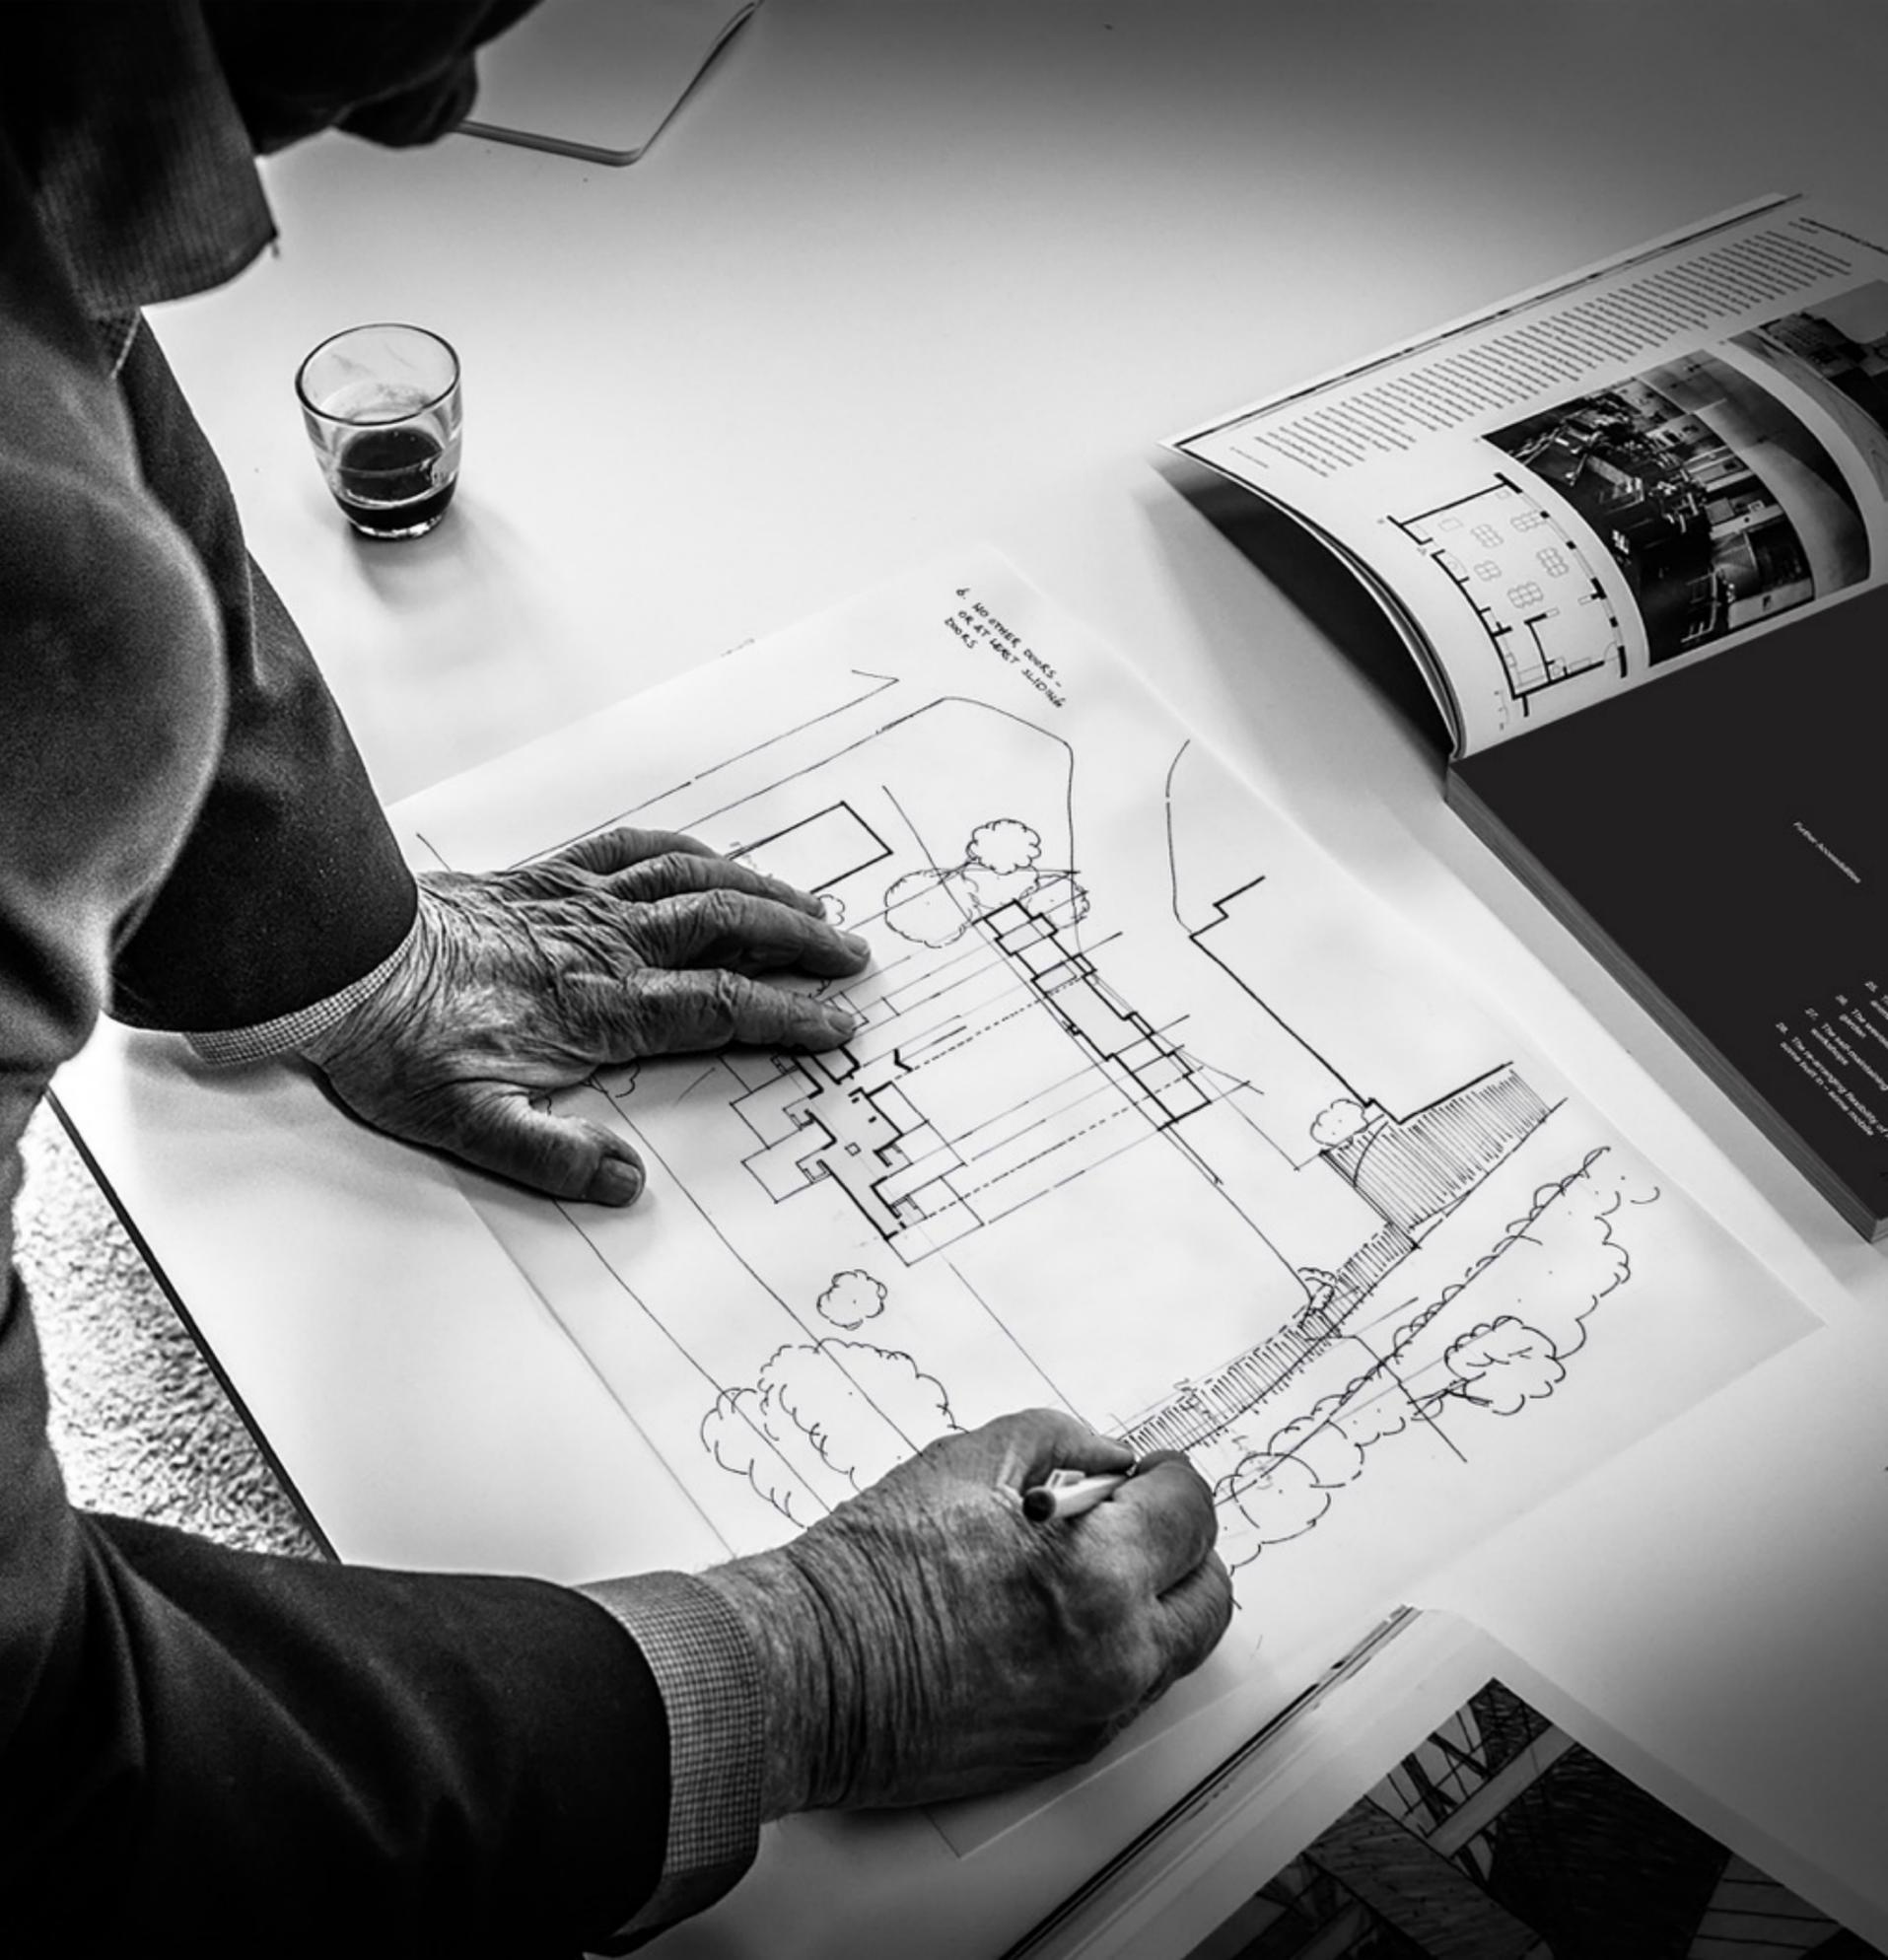

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
- 4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
- 5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
- 6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

ACTIVATIONAL -
CLASSROOMS & GYMNASIUM
FOR MULTI-AGE GROUP
PLAYGROUND

Dayroom - Library

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
- 9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
- 10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
- 13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
- 14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
- 15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
- 16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
- 17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
- 18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
- 19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
- 20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
- 22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
- 23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
- 24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
- 25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
- 26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
- 27. Workshop and making materials
28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces
2. Different heights of floors and ceilings
3. Use of indigenous materials
4. Orientation of the entrance to the East
5. Connecting function of the greeting space
6. Avoidance of doors
7. Articulation of places
8. Use of the floor as worktop and playground
9. Accessibility for children of different ages
10. Right quality of the acoustics
11. Proportion of walls to include storage
12. Organisation of open storage space
13. Observation without intrusion
14. Offer of seclusion
15. Placement of window seats
16. Importance of daylight
17. Activity based lighting
18. Meaningful access to water
19. Understanding of toilets as part of education
20. Transitional spaces between in- and outside
21. Inclusion of children's kitchen
22. Creation of an everyday theatre
23. Integration of spaces for gross motor development
24. Provision of walking on the line space (Children's House)
25. Role of the school as habitat for animals and plants
26. West-side location of the children's garden
27. Workshop and making materials
- 28. Flexibility to re-arranging furniture

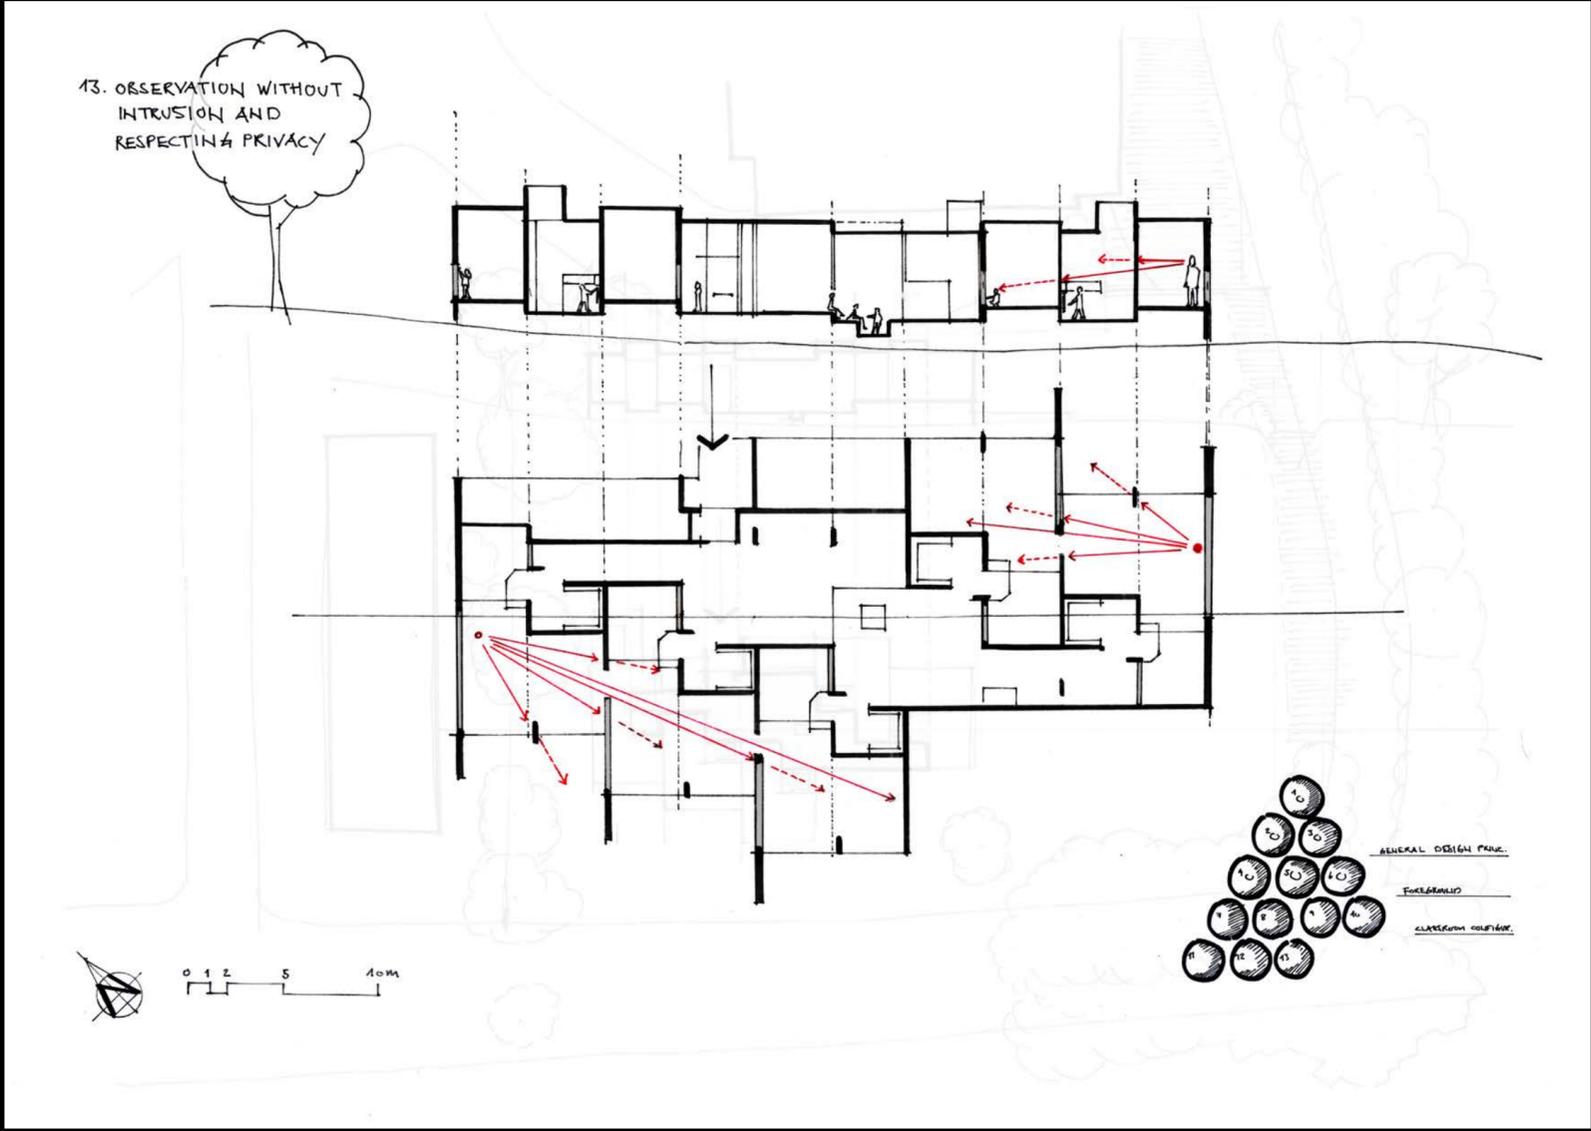

1. A hierarchy of interconnected spaces

4. Orientation of the entrance to the east

13. Observation without intrusion

15. Placement of window seats

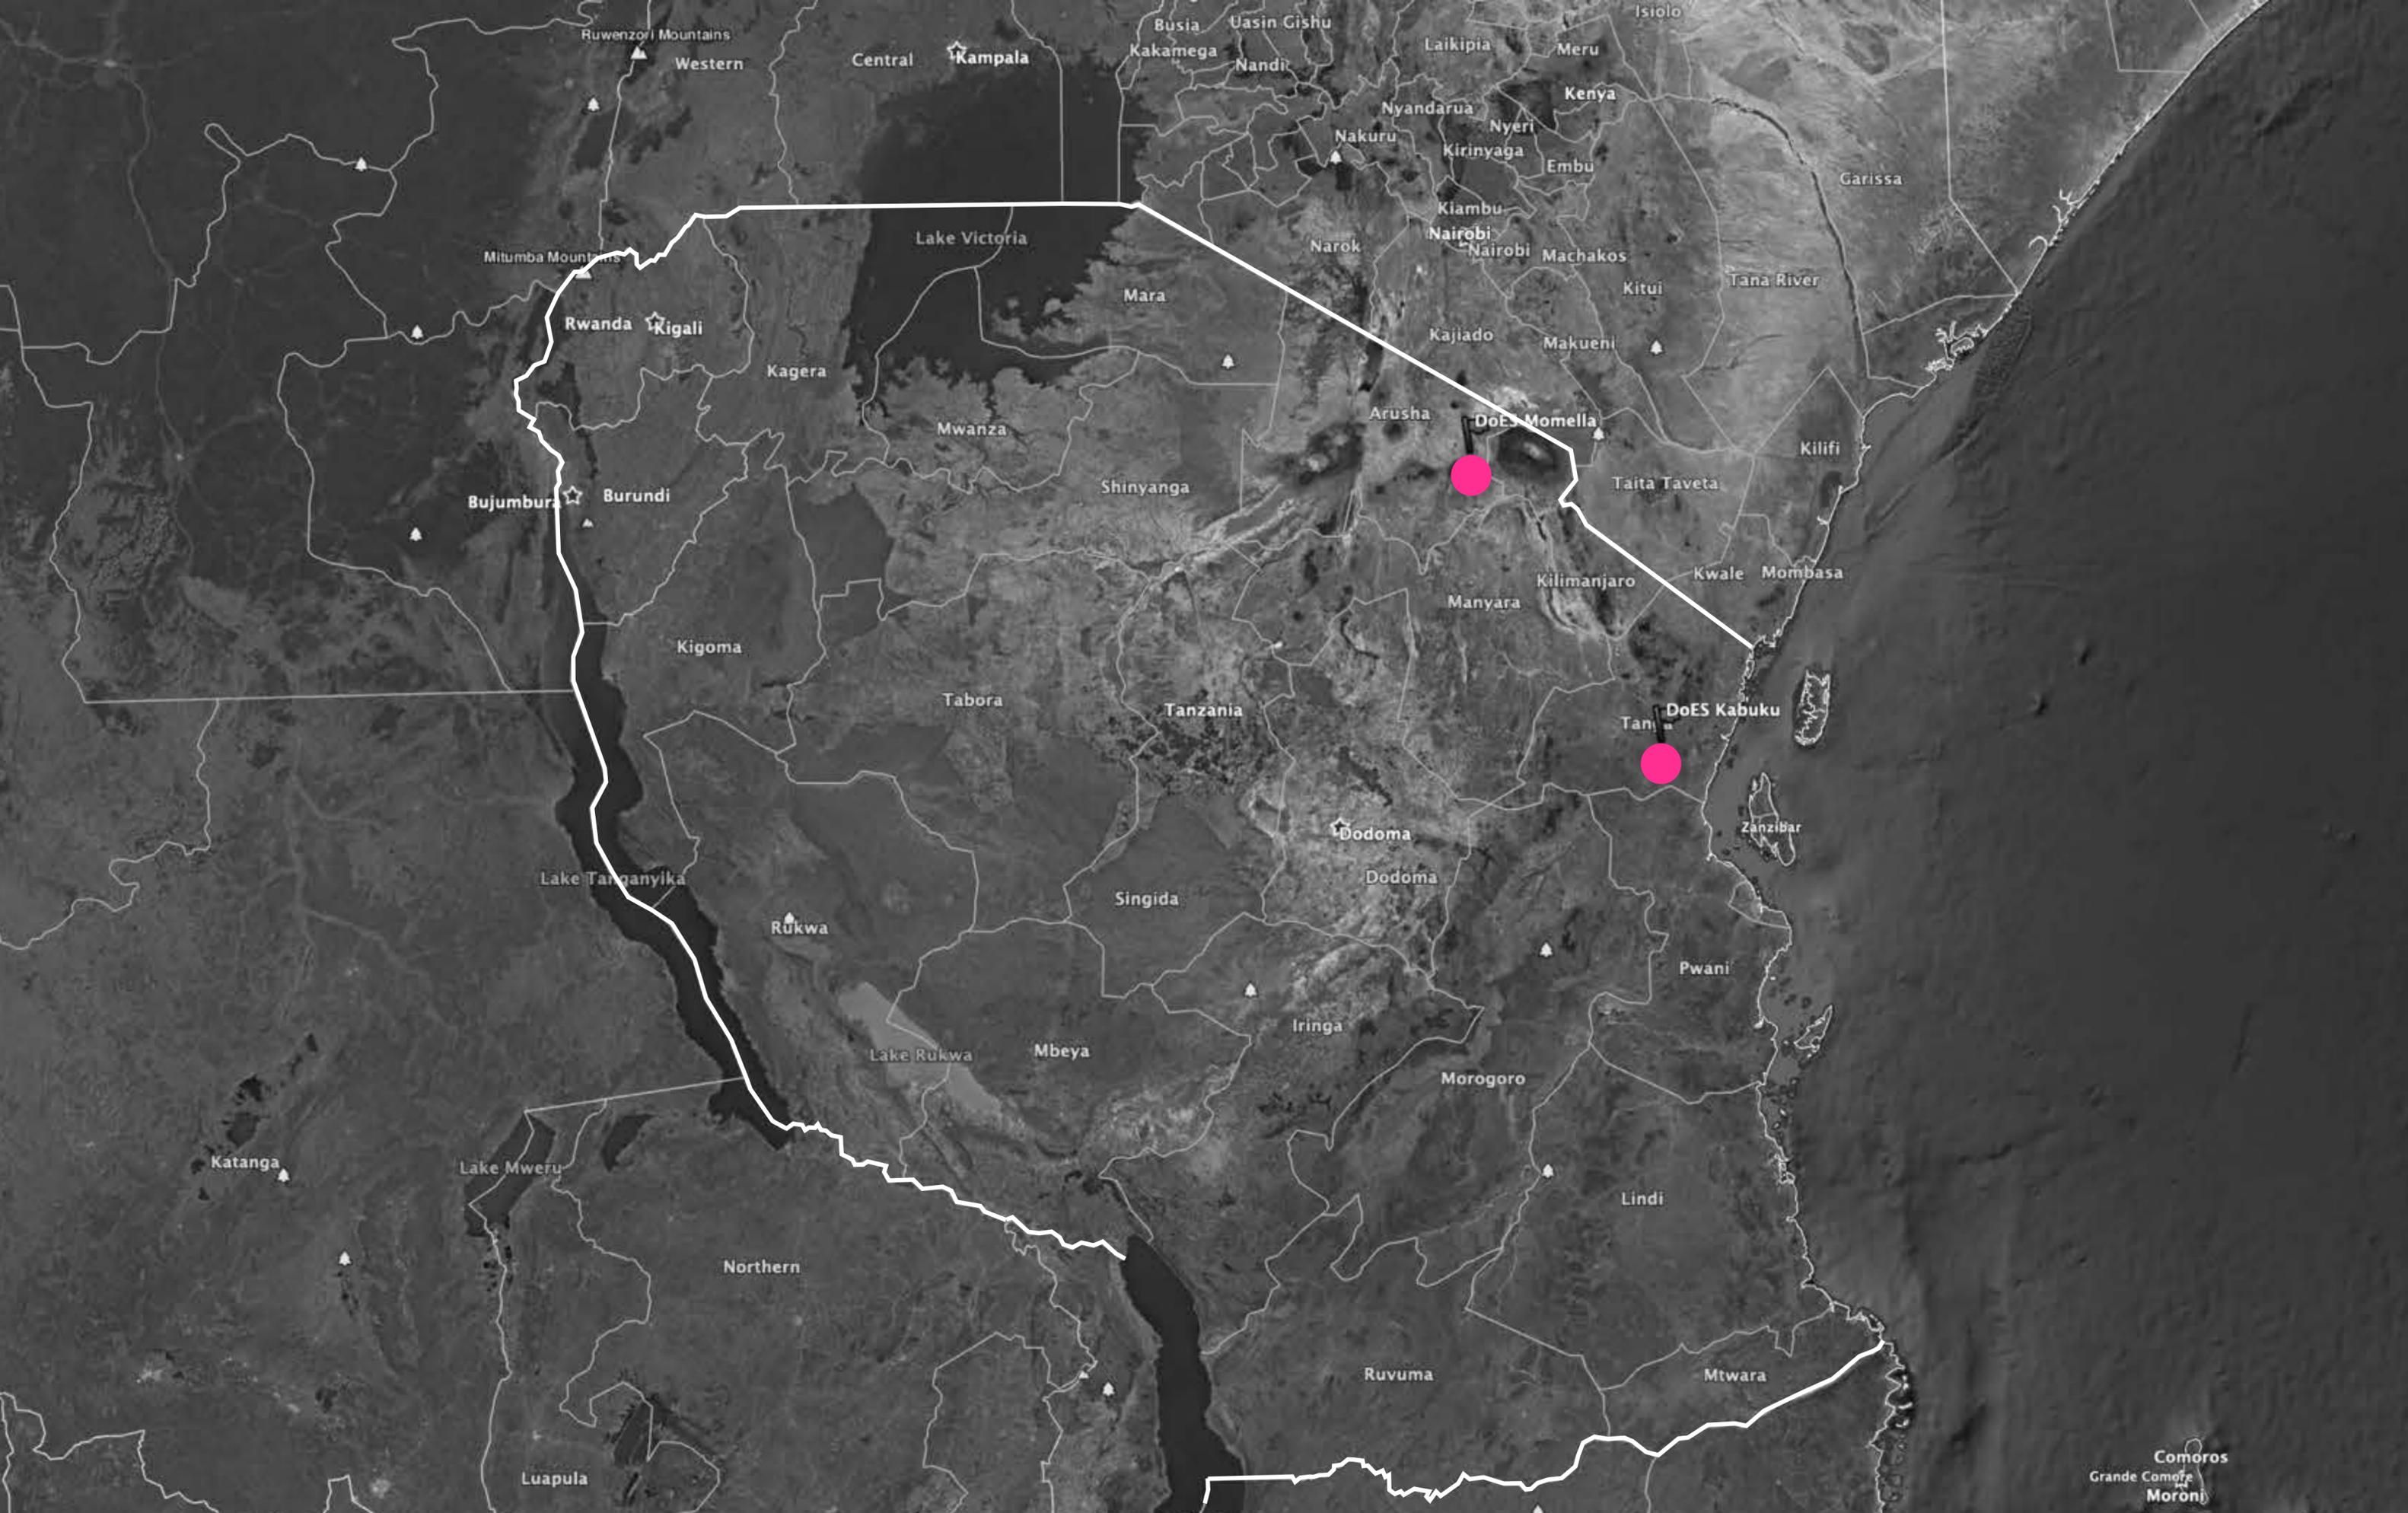

18. Meaningful access to water

Ruwenzori Mountains
Western
Central
Kampala

Busia
Uasin Gishu
Kakamega
Nandi
Laikipia
Meru
Kenya

Mitumba Mountains
Lake Victoria
Mara

Nakuru
Nyeri
Kirinyaga
Embu
Kiambu
Nairobi
Machakos
Kitui
Tana River

Rwanda
Kigali

Kagera
Mwanza

Narok
Kajiado
Makueni

Burundi
Bujumbura

Shinyanga

Arusha
DoES Momella
Taita Taveta
Kilifi

Kigoma

Tabora

Manyara
Kilimanjaro
Kwale
Mombasa

Lake Tanganyika

Tanzania

Dodoma
Dodoma
Zanzibar

Katanga
Lake Mweru

Rukwa
Lake Rukwa
Mbeya

Iringa
Morogoro
Pwani
Lindi

Northern

Ruvuma

Mtwara

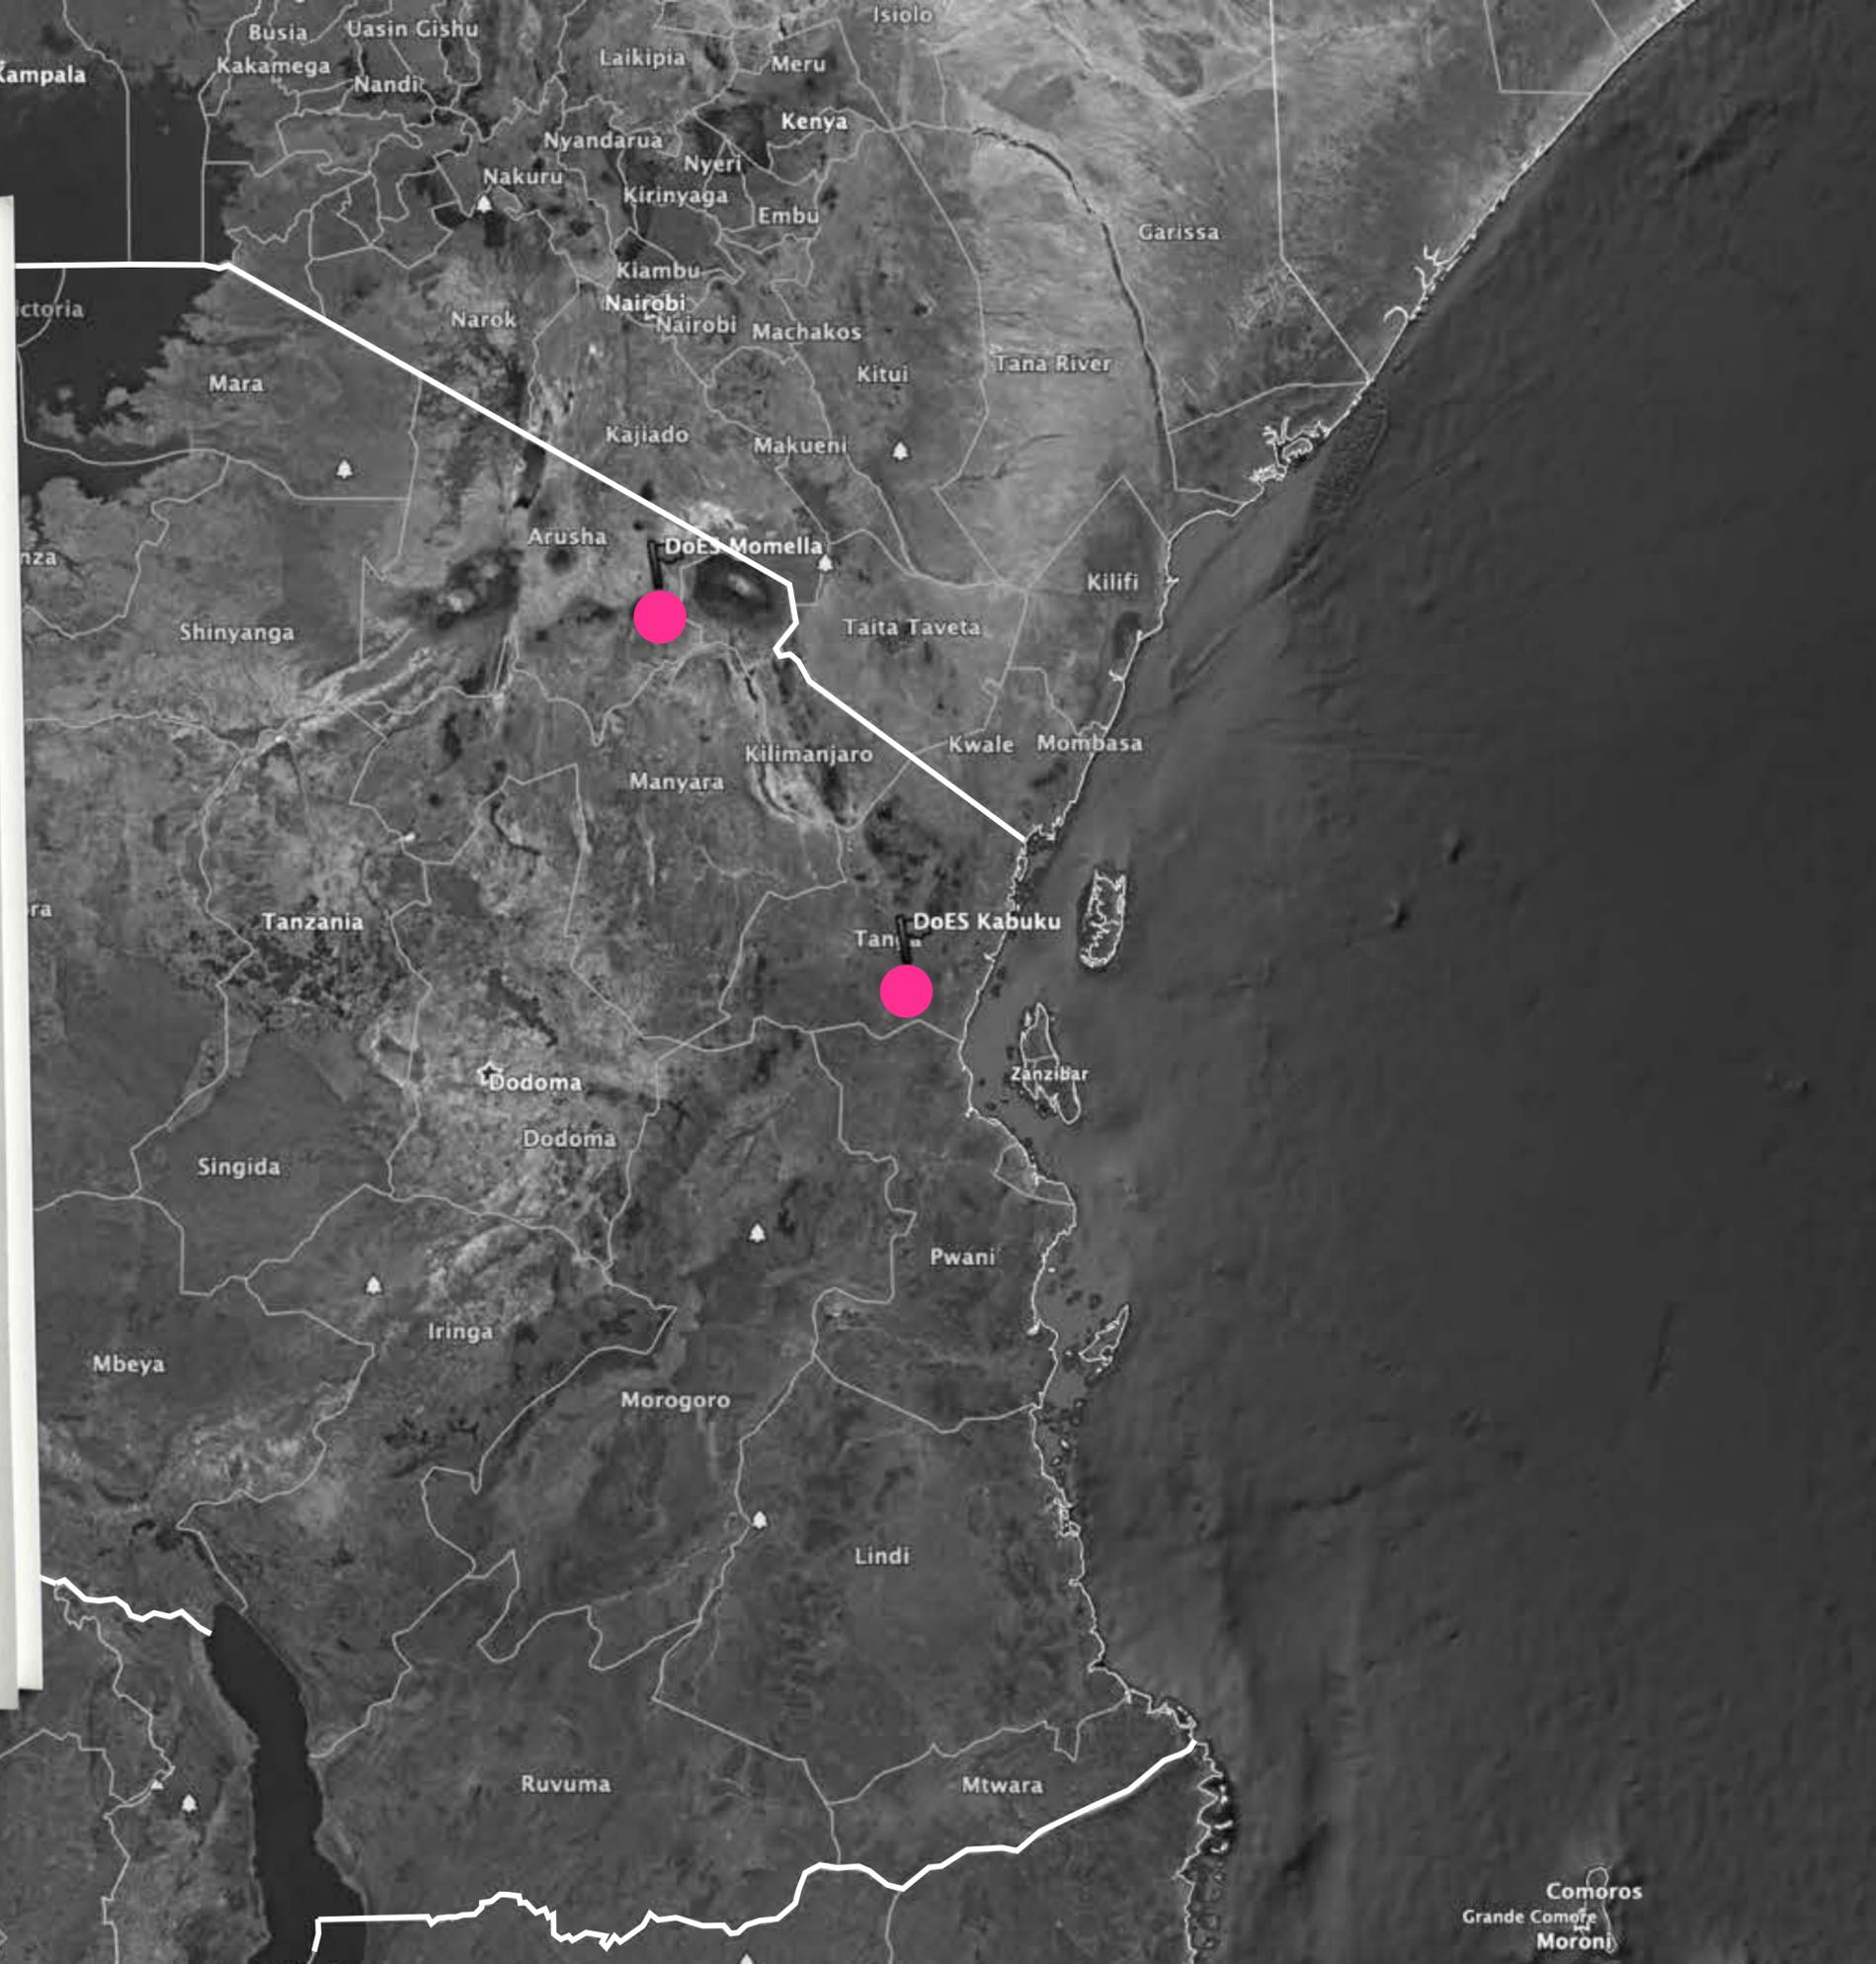

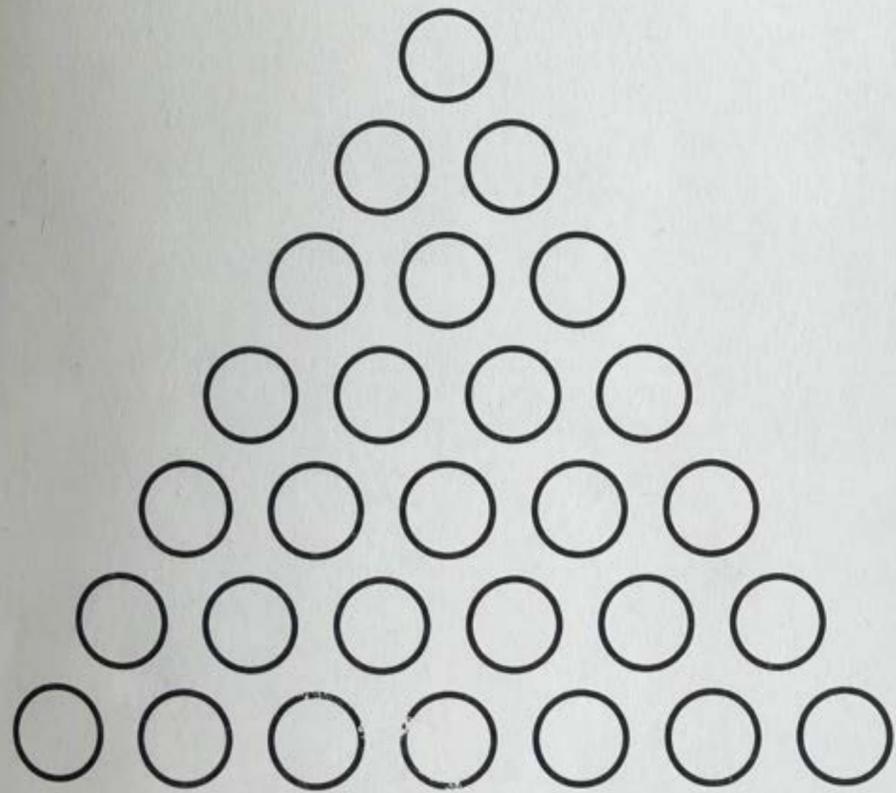

Luapula

Comoros
Grande Comore
Moroni

Montessori Architecture

A Design Instrument

Prototype
11.2018

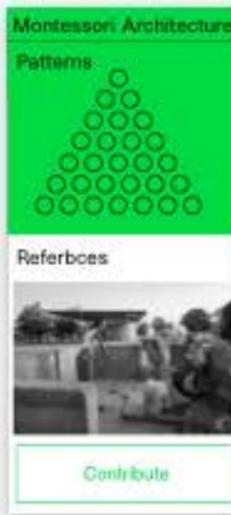

Rome
31.08.2020

Mobile Copy 25

Mobile Copy 26

Mobile Copy 23

Mobile Copy 24

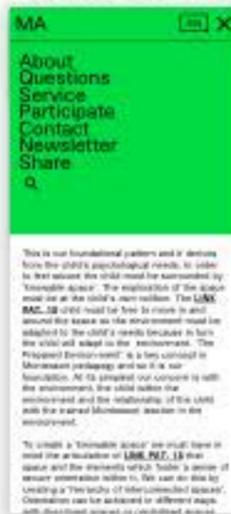

Mobile Copy 36

Mobile Copy 37

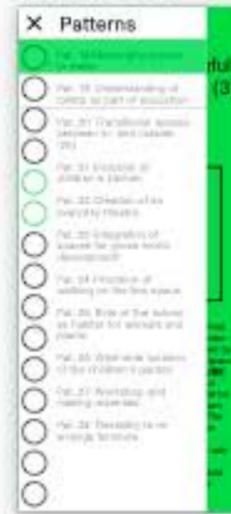

Mobile Copy 42

Mobile Copy 18

Mobile Copy 10

Mobile Copy 20

Mobile Copy 27

Mobile Copy 30

Mobile Copy 31

Mobile Copy 32

Mobile Copy 33

Mobile Copy 13

