

AMI Bold Goal Strategy-at-a-Glance

What Needs to Happen	Strategies to Drive Change	Outcomes We Seek
1 Enroll more children, and more diverse children, earlier and retain them for longer.	Design, site, staff, and deliver more accessible training, particularly for public sector trainees. Develop scholarship for policy makers on AMI outcomes, especially children living in poverty.	↑ AMI adults in public. ↑ Diversity of AMI adults. ↑ Demand for Montessori early childhood education (ECE) options. ↑ Demand for Montessori beyond ECE. ↑ Public $ for Montessori. ↑ Public $ for AMI training.
2 Train more adults, prioritizing people of color, and support more adults in more roles across their AMI careers.	Create financial supports for trainees. Develop and deploy a trainee recruitment strategy that prioritizes diversity. With partners across Montessori, advocate for easier state certifications and more certified Montessori positions. Prepare ‘AMI network’ to broadly promote and profitably deliver new, accessible courses on topics such as core knowledge or prenatal topics to child development professionals.	↑ Demand for AMI training, especially people of color. ↑ Jobs in education available to AMI adults. ↑ Longevity in AMI network. ↑ Awareness of AMI mission / EsF alignment.
3 Boost fidelity in more Montessori environments across a wider geography, in the private and public sectors, and across age levels.	Convene AMI trainees on social justice, and school communities on Montessori impact to refresh AMI, publicize our mission, and forge avenues to training. Create and promote peer and other professional development, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tech-enabled 1:1 mentorship, • Visiting advisors, and • Whole-system support. 	↑ Placement of AMI adults ↑ ...in all schools. ↑ ...in public admin. ↑ ...in new regions. ↑ Concentration of AMI at individual schools. ↑ Support ‘in the field.’