

AMI Professional Development Stream (PDS)

Observation Report Reader

Requirements to Apply

- AMI diploma for the level of training
- A minimum of three years classroom experience at that level
- Training center staff or designate attests to quality implementation of AMI Standards
- Current membership in AMI

Application Documents

- AMI Application for Observation Report Reader Certificate
- Copy of AMI Diploma for the level of training
- AMI Membership Number
- Personal Essay, addressing the criteria as listed on the Application Form
- Two professional letters of reference, addressing the criteria as listed on the Application Form

Training

- Signs Professional Expectations Agreement
- Attends training sessions given by the Director of Training or other course staff on reading Observation Reports
- Reads all observation reports submitted by a minimum of three students for a minimum of two courses
- Follows criteria for assessment of observation reports as provided on the training course

Assessment

- Demonstrates a strong understanding of the importance of scientific observation at the relevant stage of development
- Provides clear, positive, constructive and objective feedback

Award of Certificate

- When all training requirements have been satisfied, the Supervising Trainer submits a positive Assessment Form to AMI
- AMI will award the PDS Certificate for Observation Report Reader upon successful completion of the programme and submission of all required paperwork and fees